Another summer coming up. And for most boys, it's three months of hot weather, hangin' around and plain old ho hum. Hardly the stuff that growing up is made of. You see, during the academic school year, chances are he learned a good deal about a lot of important subjects. At TrailRidge, we concentrate on just one, but it's the most important one of all.

Himself.

Here in the North Carolina mountains, your son's classroom will be as big as all outdoors. He'll be rubbing shoulders and shaking hands with boys from fifteen states and several foreign countries as well. The experiences he'll gain will build self confidence, character and a greater appreciation of the world of nature. We know, because during the past seasons we've been privileged to watch the effect TrailRidge has had on others. All this within a caring, safe, professionally managed setting.

We know because parents have told us what a summer at TrailRidge has meant to their sons. You see, our charter is based upon a commitment to camping excellence as solid as the mountain we live on. We're short on catchy slogans and flashy, four color promotional pieces but long on those learning and growing experiences that are grounded in the best principles and philosophies of camping.

TrailRidge is the kind of place where a boy begins to understand that his mission is to grow up to become a man--in the fullest and best sense of the word. Your primary role as parents is to make sure that takes place. Our pledge is to lend a strong, sure helping hand along the way. And the two minutes you spend reading our brochure may well be the best investment you'll ever make in your son's present and future life. When you've finished, call us at 704-688-3879. There is still time to enroll him for a summer of fellowship, fun and adventure that he'll treasure forever. We're genuinely looking forward to hearing from you...today!
